

The Chinese University of Hong Kong
Joint Committee on New Student Orientation (JCNSO)

How to prepare your first student-led orientation activity at CUHK?

(as of 16 Aug)

Enrollment

1. Please make sure that the provided information is correct.
2. The successful registration of the JCNSO Online Registration System doesn't mean you will join the student-led orientation activities successfully. If the registered number exceed the quota of your selected activities, there would be luck draws. The orientation organizers will contact their participants 2-3 days before the camps. If you do NOT receive any call from the orientation organizers 3 days before the camps, please contact them directly (Please refer to the Faculty / Department Orientation Camps \(Small O\) List and College Orientation Week \(Big O\) list for details.).
3. If you are under 18 years old, you must have the consent from your parent / guardian before your enrollment. The emergency contact person should be your legal guardian.

Orientation camp fee

4. All registered new students who join the orientation camps will receive a bill issued by the Finance Office of the University right after the new academic term starts.
5. Any withdrawal request should be raised before the orientation camps. Please contact the orientation camp organizers directly. You are also advised to write an email to the organizers to foster your communication with the orientation organizers. Please also confirm with them if any camp fee should be paid.
6. If the orientation camps are cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances (such as outbreaks of serious diseases), part of the orientation camp fee for orientation materials, such as uniforms and booklets, etc. will be collected. The materials will be distributed to enrolled new students in due course.
7. No orientation camp fee, society membership fee or orientation activity fee will be collected in the Orientation Day.

Typhoon and rainstorm arrangements

8. When the Typhoon Signal No. 8 (or above) is hoisted / Black Rainstorm Warning Signal is hoisted on the 1st day of the orientation camps, the orientation camps may be affected. Please read the guidelines "Typhoon and rainstorm arrangements of orientation camps" of the orientation website (JCNSO

guidelines) for details. You are advised to contact the ocamp organizers to make sure that the camps will start on schedule.

- When the Typhoon Signal No. 8 (or above) is hoisted / Black Rainstorm Warning Signal is hoisted during the orientation camps, all activities will be cancelled. Please refer the guidelines “Typhoon and rainstorm arrangements of orientation camps” of the orientation website (JCNSO guidelines) in details.

Before the orientation camps

- Make sure you have applied for Temporary Campus Access Pass so you can access to CUHK campus.

Another method – only for those students who receive SID no.

13. Orientation camps include many outdoor and high energy activities. You will meet new friends and adjust to hostel life. Please check and understand your physical and mental health condition before joining the camps. If you are not feeling well and/or emotional stable, you may not be suitable to participate in the camps.

14. Medical consultation before the camps is a must for those who are suffering from heart disease, high blood pressure, epilepsy, mood disorders, mental disorders or other chronic diseases.
15. In order to preventing the spread of infectious diseases, you should check your body temperature before arriving at the orientation camps. Students who are feeling unwell and /or suffering from fever must not join the orientation camps.
16. Please bring your medicine (if any), sufficient masks, anti-bacterial hand gels, sun care products, umbrellas, anti-mosquito products.

During the orientation camps

17. The orientation camps are organized by senior university students. All participants, including senior and new students should take responsibilities for their own behaviors during the camps. Please refuse to join any inappropriate activities (e.g. activities include coarse language, disturbing and dangerous acts and personal attack/insult, etc.). No compulsory activities are allowed during the orientation camps. Please decide whether you join the activities on your own.
18. You should take care of your own safety during the orientation camps. Please do not wear slippers to avoid any accidents when you are joining any outdoor activity.
19. If you are feeling unwell during the orientation camps, please take a rest, stop joining any orientation activity and contact your team leaders at once.

Joint Committee on New Student Orientation

21. Aims of Joint Committee on New Student Orientation
 - To plan and coordinate the student-led orientation activities of the Faculty/ Department/ College;
 - To decide the fee of the student-led orientation activities;
 - To coordinate with student hostel management units on the accommodation arrangements for the Faculty/ Department/ College orientation activities;
 - To review the Faculty/ Department/ College orientation plans and make recommendations as appropriate;
 - To submit an annual report to the Vice-Chancellor and President.

New Student Orientation Website

22. The Office of Student Affairs has launched a one-stop orientation website which provides new students with essential information and resources that will enable them to make a smooth transition into academic and campus life at CUHK. The website includes the introduction of the University services and resources, a practical checklist and some useful links for freshmen.
