Faculty/ Department Orientation Camps (Small O)

For more details, please visit the CUHK Orientation Website.

"Small O" refers to the Faculty/ Department Orientation. In order to let new students understand their study programmes and meet new friends, some related activities include virtual, face-to-face on-campus indoor and outdoor ice-breaking games, teachers and students' sharing sessions about academic programmes and university life, and campus tours, etc., are organised.

College Orientation Week (Big O)

For more details, please visit the CUHK Orientation Website.

"Big O" is an important event of the unique College system at CUHK. Activities are all well-designed by College Organising Committees. In order to let new students from different cultural backgrounds be familiar with their own college and build up the sense of belonging, student organisers arrange unique and fabulous games and activities during the College Orientation Week. In addition to the above activities, non-local student associations also assist new incoming students to adjust their life in Hong Kong and adapt to university life via various interesting activities during College Orientation Week which they shall be able to make more friends.

EOC "Online Training Module on Preventing Sexual Harassment on Campus"

No one wants to see sexual harassment happens on campus but how can we prevent it? You are invited to help create a sexual-harassment-free campus together with us by joining here to Prevent Sexual Harassment on Campus through relevant online training/The training module "Preventing Sexual Harassment on Campus" has three parts which cover a series of animated videos that help you learn while having fun!

Part 1: We'll talk about how to define sexual harassment and how to deal with it with various reporting options, together with a short quiz at the end.

Part 2: You already know what sexual harassment is. We'll look at various scenarios that could happen during your university life, together with seven pop-up questions.

Completion: You'll get seven key takeaways and a digital certificate with your name printed on it. The training module will take about 15 minutes to complete.

You can learn at your own pace - take it all at once, or complete it in phases! Enjoy!

Please learn more about the prevention of sexual harassment on campus via the Online Training Module on Preventing Sexual Harassment on Campus!

Important Message!

Thank you very much for enrolling the student-led orientation activities. If you have not received your confirmation email, please contact the Secretariat, Joint Committee for Student-led Orientation Activities, at ocamp@cuhk.edu.hk or telephone: 3943-9944.

If you would like to update any information, please log into the system and revise your information for resubmission.

Points to note

1. All orientation activities are optional except for compulsory College Orientation Week.
2. The official student-led orientation camps will be conducted within campus. Overnight orientation camp is allowed.
3. Please read the JCNSO guidelines and know the rules <https://orientation.cuhk.edu.hk/2024/wp-content/uploads/2024/07/JCNSO-Guidelines-on-organizing-orientation-activities-2024.pdf>.
4. The orientation activities are charged. The fee covers some orientation souvenirs, such as T-shirts, bags and bottles. New students will settle the orientation fee in September via Finance Office, CUHK. For those who join charged orientation activities will receive a bill issued by the Finance Office of the University right after the new academic term starts. Please do NOT pay the organisers directly. Student organisers are not allowed to collect any fee from freshmen. For non-local students who will join the College Orientation Week, please also pay attention to point 8 as below.
5. Any withdrawal request should be raised before the orientation activities. Please contact the orientation organisers directly. You are also advised to write an email to the organisers to foster your communication with the orientation organisers. Please also confirm with them whether there is any fee. (If you join the charged online orientation.)
6. For the College Orientation Activities of Orientation Week, it is required that all participants should belong to same colleges. If you do not receive the College affiliation result by 22 August 2025 (Thursday), you may not be able to join the student-led College Orientation Activities.
7. The non-local student associations will collect the activity fee of the non-local new students' activities and the fee is not included in the College Orientation Week.

*The personal data collected from you will be used by the University and the student organisers of the student-led orientation that you enroll for the purpose of organizing student-led orientation activities this summer. If you do not allow student organisers to have your personal data collected in this system, please DO NOT enrol the orientation activity. ****

The orientation organisers will contact you soon. If you do not receive any phone call from orientation organiser 3 days prior to the beginning of the orientation, please check with the contact person below:
